Andover Boys Awarded $1,000

A total of slightly over $7000 in prizes and scholarships, of which nearly $1,000 went to Andover boys, was presented at the Chapel services at Phillips academy yesterday morning by Dr. Fuess. The largest local award, and one of the largest of all awards, was the Amherst scholarship of $400 given to John A. Lindsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Lindsay, based on scholarship, character and need. John was an important member of the academy line last fall. He also won honorable mention for the Weir prize in New Testament Greek.

Two scholarships of $250 each were also given to local boys, the Gordon Ferguson Allen Memorial to John White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter White of South Main street, and the Schuyler Bussing Serviss Memorial to George C. Nicoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nicoll of Washington avenue. John White won the Entrance examination prize earlier in the year.

Five Andover boys were among the 27 who divided the $300 attendance prize. They were: Lawrence H. Bixby, Jr., Donald A. Boynton, Donald B. Cole, Arthur L. Coleman, Jr., and Clarence H. Weeks, Jr.

The largest award, $1,000, was given to Ted Harrison of Lawrence, star southpaw, for his freshman year at Yale.

Legion May Move to Richardson School

The local Legion post may save the town some money shortly by moving into town-owned quarters. Tonight at the regular meeting of the post there will be a discussion of the possibility of establishing Legion quarters in the Richardson school on Lowell street. The principal objection will be the distance from the center of the town, but this may be overridden in these days of easy transportation.

The school has been entirely repainted on the outside woodwork, and one room on the north side has been completed inside for use by the playground people. The back hall, toilets, etc., have been entirely reconditioned. Next Thursday from three to eight the school will be open to the public.

FREE CHURCH PICNIC

The annual picnic of the Free church Sunday school will be held at Sandown, N. H., Saturday, with the children leaving at one.

WHIST PARTY

A whist party will be held by the Mothers' club next Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Feeney on Holt road. The members will be guests of Mrs. May Lewis at Forest Lake Friday.

Three Academy Teachers Retiring

Warren K. Moorehead

At the one hundred and sixtieth Commencement of Phillips Academy this Friday three scholars and gentlemen retire from their active academic connection with the school. Yet, though Allen Rogers Benner, John Lewis Phillips, and Warren King Moorehead say farewell to the routine of classrooms and textbooks, all three will continue a live and active interest in the fields in which they have so long been guiding the boys under their care. Professor Benner in Greek, Mr. Phillips in Latin, and Mr. Moorehead in Archaeology are distinctly different personalities but alike in one respect—for almost half a century their influence on Phillips Academy and Phillips boys has been outstanding.

The name of Professor Allen

John L. Phillips

Rogers Benner has come to be synonymous with the mention of Greek at Phillips Academy. Professor of Greek on the Jonathan French Foundation, Professor Benner has started many a graduate of Phillips on a life study of the Classics and has stimulated the interest of many more. He numbers several of the present faculty among his former pupils. One reason for his great success as a teacher is his deep interest in boys and their welfare, an interest not confined to the classroom alone. A testimonial of his influence is demonstrated by the number of sons of "old boys" who have come back to the school to study Xenophon, Homer, and the Greek Testament under him.

Academy Boys Cheer Firemen

Brothers' Field again resounded with cheers last Friday night about five o'clock when the academy boys who did not have classes at that hour cheered the efforts of the local fire department in subduing a blaze at the Eastman house on Highland road. The blaze was confined to the upper corner of the house near the grandstands, with a hole in the side of the house being torn away to get at the fire. Officer Winthrop K. White sounded the alarm. The dining hall employees reside in the Eastman house.

LIGHTNING HITS HOME

A downpour that lasted through most of the night, starting at eight o'clock Sunday, caused little damage here. At ten while officer John Deyermund was on duty guarding the square, a bolt struck his home on Shawsheen road, but did little damage.

Elected Captain of Two Teams

The current tendency of having co-captains, two captains for one team, went into reverse last week when Douglas Howe was elected one captain for two teams at Punchard: on Thursday for the gym team and on Friday for the baseball team. Howe has carried the main load of pitching this year.

Drill Team to Try to Win Third Title

On next Tuesday the Clan Johnston auxiliary drill team will participate in the international competition to be held at Providence, R. I., in an endeavor to gain permanent possession of the championship cup. The team has won it twice in a row, last year at Youngstown, Ohio, and the year before at Providence. If it wins the cup this year, it retains it permanently.

Award Diplomas at High School

Athletes Figure Prominently In Awards; Large Group On Honor Roll

Punchard high sent forth another large group of graduates Tuesday night, with 95 youngsters receiving their diplomas from school committee chairman Frederick C. Smith.

A number of prizes were awarded during the evening, with athletes taking several of the awards. Robert Bisset, one of the honor speakers, a three-letter man, won the Parker prize of $10 awarded to the senior who has made two letters and who has stood highest in his academic work, and he also won the five dollar Conroy prize for an extempore essay. Paul S. McDonald, who will captain the football team next year, was presented with the Harvard club prize book, "The Flowering of New England," for being the highest standing boy in the Junior class college preparatory division. ## Name Dufton to Harvard Faculty

Charles H. Dufton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. H. Dufton of 4 Dufton road, teacher at the University of Michigan for the past two years, has accepted a position as instructor in economics at Harvard university. He will at the same time work for his Ph.D. degree, having received his A.B. from Yale in 1934 and his A.M. at Michigan two years later. He is a graduate of Phillips academy, winning scholastic honors both here and at New Haven.

Retires After 32 Years of Printing

Peter Dumont of Ballardvale last Thursday retired after a long service as a printer. Mr. Dumont had been printing for 32 years, having started in Salem and later having worked at the Andover Press before coming to Smith & Coutts about a decade ago. While at the Press he printed the Townsman and a few weeks ago he once again was running the town's paper at Smith & Coutts.

He has two sons, Archie and George, who have followed in his footsteps and are both printers.

MASONIC SERVICE

The local Masons and Eastern Star members will attend the services at the Free church Sunday morning in a body. The Masons will meet in Masonic hall and the Eastern Star members at Square and Compass hall at 10.20.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Goodwin have moved from Brook street to North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leitch and family of Franklin, N. H., will occupy the Rand house on Locke street.

Call New Type "Benner Greek"

To Professor Allen Rogers Benner, retiring Professor of Greek at Phillips Academy, has come an honor coveted by every teacher. One of his former pupils, Professor Francis H. Fobes of Amherst College, has designed a new kind of Greek type and named it "Benner Greek" in honor of his old teacher. Professor Fobes describes the new font as "an attempt to reproduce in type the minuscule script of the end of the ninth century and the beginning of the tenth." Even by the average man with no knowledge of Greek the minute delicacy of "Benner Greek" can be appreciated. The first publication of the new type was in a small pamphlet bearing the name "Benner Greek" which was printed at Professor Fobes's "Snail's Pace Press" at Amherst.

On May 25 of this year Professor Benner received a tribute printed in Benner Greek at a dinner given in his honor at the Harvard Faculty Club. It was autographed by the eleven others present at the dinner. On the same occasion Professor Benner was the recipient of a copy of "Aristotle's Poetics" which had been the personal property of Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning and which contains their penciled notes.

This June Professor Benner celebrates the Fiftieth Anniversary of his graduation as Valedictorian of the Class of 1888 from Phillips Academy. He can also celebrate the completion of forty-five years of successful teaching as a member of the Phillips Academy Faculty.

Be pleasant until 10 o'clock in the morning and the rest of the day will take care of itself.

No. Andover Flower Show June 24 to 26

The annual Flower Show of the North Andover Garden Club will be held on June 24, 25, and 26, Friday through Sunday, at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Everett W. Pervere, 1046 Great Pond Road, North Andover.

Mrs. L. Joseph Eno is chairman and the committee consists of Mrs. Charles D. McDuffie, Miss Kate H. Stevens, Mrs. John G. Coolidge, Miss Harriet S. Smith, Mrs. Ames Stevens, and Mrs. George H. Gage.

The judges are Miss Eleanor P. Jones of Haverhill, Mrs. Romney Spring of Topsfield and Mrs. Francis Mitchell of Hingham. There are to be 7 classes, including gardens, planting about a tree, wall vases in frames to simulate a flower painting, arrangements of flowers in sea son, of roses and strawberries, and classes for children, for employees of members, also a horticultural class.

LADIES' NIGHT HELD BY SERVICE CLUB

Nearly 100 members of the Service Club and their wives attended the Ladies' night meeting which wound up the season's activities for the club this year at the Phillips Inn last Thursday. It was also the last meeting presided over by Richard G. Whipple who turned over the gavel to incoming president Francis E. Wilson.

The program included accordion and vocal selections by Pietro Mor-delia and his daughter Flora, monologues by Betty Campbell of Lawrence, and a talk on Emmeline Pankhurst by Leonard F. James of Phillips academy's faculty.

GRANGE MEETS

Andover Grange No. 183 met in Grange Hall on Tuesday evening. During the lecture hour the program was in charge of the Newburyport Grange. "The Flag" and its history from colonial times was the basis of the Lecturer's program.

Junior-Senior Prom Held at Punchard

Last Friday evening, the Punchard Junior-Senior prom was held in the Memorial Gym. The gym was very colorfully decorated with trees, Japanese lanterns, streamers, and baskets of flowers hanging from the ceiling with a garden in the center of the floor. An artificial pool was laid in the center of the garden, with a birch bridge crossing it. Many parents and friends of the students watched the prom from the auditorium.

Roland Russell's Ramblers furnished music for the formal affair, the dance beginning at eight-thirty and the receiving line open from eight to eight-thirty o'clock.

The following were in the receiving line: Mr. and Mrs. Hamblin, School committeeman and Mrs. Frederick C. Smith, School Committeeman William A. Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Stevens, Mrs. Emma G. Carter, Douglas Howe and Dorothy Cederberg, junior host and hostess, John Guild and Dorothy Babb, senior host and hostess.

During the intermission, lunch was served in the cafeteria with members of Miss Kimball's home economics class assisting.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Established 1887

Published on Thursday at Smith & Coutts Co., 4 Park Street, Andover, Mass., by Elmer J. Grover.

Entered at the Andover Postoffice as Second Class Matter

Where Has It Gone?

Last March the town meeting appropriated a sum of $10,000 for WPA materials and truck hire to be used in connection with labor provided by the Federal government. Today with only about $1,000 of that left, one of two things must be done: either secure a transfer from the reserve fund, or call another special town meeting for an appropriation.

In some way or another Andover will take care of its unemployed, for while the residents of this town realize that this present state of unemployment is artificially created by the anti-business policies of Washington, they also realize that they must let no one go hungry. Yet Andover wants something to show for the money it spends on unemployment relief, and the big majority of the unemployed want to do an honest day's work for their money.

But have you seen any of the results of this $9,000 that has been spent for materials and truck hire? Or have you seen any of the results of the money that has been spent the past five or six years on this same account? Of course there have been some results, and if you have an hour or so some day you can probably see something here and there, but you'd have to go west to West Andover to find it. Gravel roads, that's what we've been building, unbuilding, rebuilding for the past few years. Five years ago we had already spent too much money on gravel roads, but we've still been spending the WPA money on this same wasteful project, wasteful as long as we're not able to hard-surface them the same year.

If the finance committee of the town has to spend more money to supplement WPA grants, let's bring the WPA men nearer home and give them some really worthwhile projects to do. Five years after reaching the saturation point on graveling roads would seem to be about time to stop spending money on the non-profitable washboard road business.

Siftings

School vacation starts next week, and those poor kids won't have anything to do until September.

* * *

At last President Roosevelt is going to pay some attention to Massachusetts, for the wedding day at least.

* * *

Next depression be sure to go into the gravel business.

CHURCH TO WIPE OUT INDEBTEDNESS

The Baptist church expects this Sunday to wipe out its mortgaged indebtedness at the annual Gift Sunday. All organizations of the church will take part.

Communications

"Purify Own Town"

To the Editor:

I take this opportunity of congratulating you and at the same time thanking you for the editorials in the last two issues of the Townsman. They are certainly to the point and constructive criticism of this kind is needed to bring about an improvement in conditions. If more of the townspeople would take an interest in such matters, such a state of affairs could not exist.

Some people were discussing the dishonesty and corruption in the federal government when some one said, "What can we do about it?" The answer was, "Begin at home by purifying your own town." An interested citizen.

(For this and the many verbal expressions of appreciation in the past two weeks, the Townsman is sincerely grateful. We are glad to state that the Board of Public Works, now cognizant of the bad situation, is co-operating by determining to oust any future offender, regardless of age, position, or any other condition.)

Reminds Seniors of Golden Rule

Urging the seniors of Phillips academy not to accept the currently popular doctrine of "might makes right," Headmaster Dr. Claude M. Fuess emphasized in his Baccalaureate address Sunday the desirability of following the doctrines of Christianity which have in many countries today been swept away by materialism. He reminded his soon-to-be alumni that the school was built on an appreciation of spiritual value and that today's academy teaches that it profits man nothing to gain the whole world and lose his soul. Life will be worth living, he said, for the boy who appreciates these facts, for only through the application of the Golden Rule have we hope for peace on earth.

Dr. Fuess referred to his recent trip to England where libraries, schools, etc., are being forgotten in the mad rush to build battleships and bombing planes for preparation against a war that they seem to think is inescapable.

Dr. Carl Pfatteicher presented an organ recital before the program.

ANDOVER RESIDENTS WIN PRIZES

A number of Andover residents won prizes last week-end in the flower show held by the Boxford Oratorio society. Among them were: Mrs. B. E. Pitman, Mrs. M. E. Guttererson, Mrs. John H. Manning, Mrs. Robert Brown, Frederic S. Boutwell, Dr. Carrie Bacon, Dwight Killam, Horace Killam, Jr. Some of the winners annexed several prizes.

HALT FUND EXHAUSTION

The near-depletion of the W.P.A. material appropriation, of which only $1,000 remains, will be temporarily halted by the start of the Shawsheen diverting drain, all the legal and governmental tangles having been straightened out. This will employ 80 of the present W. P. A. quota for about six weeks. Work is to start very soon.

THREE ACADEMY TEACHERS RETIRING

Professor Benner was educated in the schools of Waldoboro, Maine, and was graduated from Phillips Academy as valedictorian in 1888. Four years later he was awarded his A. B. degree from Harvard summa cum laude. He is a member of Signet, O. K., Delta Sigma, Phi Beta Kappa and Cum Laude. On his graduation several of his old teachers sought his services, but he accepted the offer of Dr. Bancroft and returned to Phillips to teach. Here he has remained ever since.

Allen R. Benner

Since his graduation from Harvard he has served as the secretary of his class and has issued all of the class reports. He hopes to publish the report at the fiftieth anniversary of the class in 1942. His publications, "Selections from Homer's Iliad," and "Beginner's Greek Book" published jointly with Professor Smyth are widely used as texts in many leading American colleges.

Professor Benner has travelled abroad many of his summers, but he has also spent much time in Waldoboro in the home of his ancestors. He is taking up his legal residence in that town and plans to spend much of his time there where he has a farm on which he raises flowers and vegetables.

He plans to engage in some literary work connected with his life long studies.

The dedication of the 1916 "Pot Pourri" to Mr. Phillips in the following words, "To John Lewis Phillips, whose nobility of character, steadfast friendship, and scholarly zeal have been a continual inspiration to his students," is a fitting tribute to his years of service to the school. His unfailing kindness and interest in his students have made him one of Andover's most beloved teachers.

Preparing for college at Haverhill High School and Brewster Academy, he was graduated from Dartmouth in 1894. In that same year he was appointed to the Phillips Academy faculty as an instructor in Latin and has served in that capacity ever since. He was married to Bertha Manning in 1898. Now instructor in Latin on the Samuel Harvey Taylor Foundation, Mr. Phillips is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Cum Laude, K.K.K., Tiger, and P. L. S.

During his sabbatical year, 1908-09 he studied in Rome and at the University of Gottingen in Germany. From 1914 to 1928 Mr. Phillips was at Williams Hall. During these years the Hall doubled its capacity and many an alumnus has happy memories of how, as a homesick "prep", he was cheered and encouraged by the gracious hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips. For many years he was director of the Phillips Academy Dramatic Club. Every kind of drama from Sheridan's "School for Scandal" to an evening of Vaudeville was presented under his direction. In 1905 a grateful Dramatic Club presented him and his wife with a silver loving cup in recognition of their services.

Since the establishment of a chapter of the Cum Laude Society at Andover Mr. Phillips has held the office of secretary and has been prominent in the chapter's activities. Together with Mr. Allen, he published the Allen and Phillips "Latin Composition" and he was also a collaborator in "Byrne's Syntax of High School Latin."

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have made no definite plans for the future. They will spend the summer and autumn at their home at Webster Lake, Franklin, New Hampshire, and will probably do some traveling in the next year.

Warren King Moorehead was born in Sienna, Italy, of American parents, March 10, 1866. Returning to this country at an early age, he became interested in Indians when he was thirteen. In 1883 he entered Denison College, Ohio, in the heart of the Mound Builders country. He was a long-distance runner and went on foot to Flint Ridge, eleven miles distant, where he collected specimens and carried them back to the college.

When Dr. Moorehead began his studies, no college taught archaeology, and he was appointed an aide in the Smithsonian Institution at Washington. There he trained under Dr. Thomas Wilson for two years and then began explorations at his own expense.

He surveyed the famous Fort Ancient, Ohio. Years later he did the same in Illinois at Cahokia, the largest earth tumulus in this country. Both these places are now state parks, due to his efforts.

Dr. Moorehead was appointed by President Theodore Roosevelt on the Indian Commission in 1908 and served 26 years, becoming senior member. The Commission saved our Indians many millions of dollars.

He was appointed curator of the Museum of Archaeology at Phillips Academy in 1901, later becoming director. He retires with the title of director-emeritus on commencement day of this week.

Dr. Moorehead is the author of many archaeological works and reports for the Department of Interior.

Accompanied by Mrs. Moorehead he sails for Europe early in July for a five months' stay.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Miner W. Merrick of St. David's, Pennsylvania, are rejoicing over the birth of another daughter on Monday, June 13, at the Winchester hospital, Winchester, Mrs. Merrick is the former Elizabeth Eaton, younger daughter of Fred H. ## Pre-historic Exhibit at Addison Gallery

In interesting contrast with the recent exhibitions of thoroughly modern art and scientific methods of picture-making, the present exhibition of Prehistoric Rock pictures at the Addison Gallery brings us face to face in a most vivid way with the unsurpassed art of men who lived 20,000 years ago. Most of us are familiar through illustrations in books with the remarkable outlines of wild animals and men drawn by prehistoric hunters, at the time when the map of the world had a different physical aspect. Perhaps some of us have seen prehistoric sites. But for most of us, these facsimiles of the actual rock surfaces on which the pictures were made will be an entirely new experience and bring us much closer to an appreciation of art, created by men of races so ancient that they are not even our ancestors, still inscribed upon the stones which have survived.

Stanley Norton of Elm street was awarded his B. S. degree at Tufts Monday.

PIKE SCHOOL HOLDS GRADUATION

Six members of the Pike school were graduated yesterday afternoon at Balmoral hall. They were John M. Barrell, James H. Eaton III, Archibald M. Howe, Jr., Charles H. McDuffie, John F. Shepard, and Nicholas E. Wilder.

A play, "The Piper's Revenge," was presented.

A slight fire on the wooden-shingled roof of Garfield Chase's home on Canterbury street brought the fire department out yesterday.

Donate Holstein to Labrador Families

Edward Shattuck of River road is the donor of one of seven Holstein heifers which left yesterday aboard "The Cluett" at the Army Base in Boston harbor to transport a load of supplies to the internationally famous Grenfell Mission of Labrador. Two of the heifers came from the Carnation Farms at Seabattle, one from Topsfield and another from New York.

They were all donated by Holstein Breeders interested in the Mission's welfare work among the impoverished and undernourished families of the frozen North. Many of the inhabitants of Northern Labrador are so impoverished and have lived so long on a fish diet that when their babies are born the mothers can give no milk for them. The Mission brings them to the Mission hospital where the babies are raised on Holstein cows' milk.

Donate Holstein to Labrador Families

tionally famous Grenfell Mission of Labrador. Two of the heifers came from the Carnation Farms at Seattle, one from Topsfield and another from New York.

They were all donated by Holstein Breeders interested in the Mission's welfare work among the impoverished and undernourished families of the frozen North. Many of the inhabitants of Northern Labrador are so impoverished and have lived so long on a fish diet that when their babies are born the mothers can give no milk for them. The Mission brings them to the Mission hospital where the babies are raised on Holstein cows' milk.

also an athlete, won the five dollar William A. Doherty prize for character and unselfishness, and Ralph Lakin, football player and honor speaker, won the five dollar senior typewriting award.

The M. E. Gutterson botany prizes of five and three dollars went to Phyllis Burridge and Augustine Rapisardi; the Conroy prize for first-year improvement, $5.00, went to Henry Audesse; Phyllis Whitaker won the five dollar Legion prize for excellence in the study of the Constitution; William Hannon, salutatorian, won the Washington and Franklin American History medal, and Edith Ross won the senior secretarial five dollar award.

Virginia Batcheller, valedictorian and class president, presented the class gift, $100 to be spent as Mr. Hamblin so desires.

The honor essays this year, the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution, were all on patriotic themes, and the music had also been adapted to this theme. This year the boys' glee club augmented the girls, and the orchestra with telling effect. Salutatorian Hannon spoke on "Our patriotic Heroes. Liberty in was the subject of Robert Bisset's oration, and Virginia Batcheller spoke on "Natural Beauty in America and American Idealism."

This was to have been the year in which the president of the trustees, Rev. Mr. Noss, presented the diplomas, but he stepped aside for Mr. Smith, whose daughter Barbara was graduating. In his remarks Mr. Smith mentioned that three of the class, Jacqueline Ferguson, William Hannon and Ruth Napier, had had a perfect attendance record, Miss Napier for nine years.

Diplomas were presented to the following who were on the honor roll for four years:

Others were: Hedwig Babicka, Mary Bailey, Beatrice Beaulieu, Eleanor Bishop, Alexander Blamire, Jr., Ethel Brindle, Lillian Brown, Helen Buckley, Phyllis

Know What To Buy

The buying of meat for the family meal is a job most every woman has to do every day in the year and it can prove to be really discouraging if she hasn't a certain knowledge about the meat she is buying.

The most important thing to know about meat is not the name of a certain cut, but the name of the animal from which that cut was taken, because a porterhouse steak is still known as a porterhouse steak whether it comes from a cow, a bull, or a steer. Therefore, when you see steaks or roasts advertised at extremely low prices, be sure to inquire about their origin before you buy and don't buy them unless it is real steer beef, because what might be saved in dollars and cents will be lost in food value and waste. Well trimmed, No. 1 steer beef is a code with all good market men, and we adhere strictly to that code.

Briggs-Allen School Closes

The closing day exercises of the Briggs-Allen school were held at the South church Friday morning, with a very interesting program. Prizes were awarded by Mrs. Thaxter Eaton, as follows: Amy E. Briggs Prize for greatest improvement and best school spirit during year, Eleanor Cole, Spelling, Grade II; Frederick E. Flather, 3rd, John Kimball, Maurice Curran, 3rd, Dana Eastham; Grade IV, Edith Flather, Honorable mention, Ruth Brimer; Grade VI, Carol Paradise; Grade VIII, Annette Louise Curran. Attendance Prize, Eleanor Cole. One absence from Sept. 13 to June 10, Honorable Mention, Carol Paradise, 4 absences.

Songs were sung by the various school groups, and there were several readings. Of particular interest was the Transition group's Toy Symphony, conducted by Edward Rowland. The instruments included bells, tambourine, cymbals, triangle, jungle sticks, rhythm sticks, and drums, with Mrs. Allison Morse at the piano.

Joyce and Annette Curran presented the senior essay, a scholarly composition entitled "Ideas Become Ideals." Eleanor Cole read the class history, and she with Annette Curran received diplomas. Annette also played a piano solo, Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata, First Movement.

Rev. Mr. Noss offered prayer as the program opened, with Maurice J. Curran, III, welcoming the guests. Margaret Kimball accompanied the primary group in a song.

The exercises closed with a modern comedy "Spareribs" with the following in the cast: Eleanor Cole, Sarah Darling, Joan Hartigan, Virginia Brimer, Julia Gage, Carol Paradise, Martha Darling, and Sandy Gage.

Those who assisted were: Decorations by Mrs. Southworth Cowden; Head Usher, Benjamin E. Cole III (brother of Eleanor);

Assistant Ushers, John Sweeney, John Humphreys; Mistress of Costumes, Mrs. Wallace E. Brimer; Play coached by Mrs. Burt, Assistant, Miss Marland.

Academy Faculty Presents Comedy

No trickery — Bartlett Hayes blew out the hundred candles on his birthday cake in one breath by sheer lung power! The feat was the climax of "Many Happy Returns," presented by the Faculty Players of Phillips Academy last Saturday evening in George Washington Hall. The rollicking comedy, written by Priscilla Hallowell and directed by Allen T. Cook, kept the audience in tears of laughter with its amusing situations, in one of which Mrs. Hallowell was carried off the stage in a coffin. Its pace was keyed to the sophisticated, modern settings of N. P. Hallowell, Jr. The cast included a large number of the faculty and their wives.

The author gave high praise to all who participated and mentioned especially Mr. Hayes, who played Mr. Spindler, a quavering centenarian, and Stephen Whitney as auburn-bearded Dr. Von Bintz. Others outstanding were Sheila Westgate, Priscilla Hallowell, Clare Hayes, Betty Allen, and Richard M. Gummere, Jr. who composed the scatter-brained Hogstrap family; Emory Basford as the old swain of Mrs. Hogstrap; Kilbrith J. Barrows as Dark Stable; and Anne Hopper, who gave an amusing portrayal of the gossiping old aunt.

PIANO RECITAL

The annual piano recital of the pupils of Mrs. Frederick C. Smith will be held Friday at 7:30 in the Shawsheen School Hall. Mrs. Smith will be assisted by the violin pupils of Mrs. Ethel Watson, and the cello pupils of Mrs. Hazel Hadfield. This recital is open to the public.
